

THE ANSWER

Take the PisaMover from the station beside the terminal to Pisa Centrale - EUR 6.50 one way, EUR 13.00 return, five minutes, with one intermediate stop at the Aurelia/Goletta car parks.

It is an automated shuttle with its own track, so traffic cannot touch it, and it puts you at Pisa Centrale, which is where every onward train to Florence, Lucca and the coast leaves from.

Two or more of you? The Comune's fixed airport taxi fare is EUR 10.60 to Pisa Centrale - cheaper than two PisaMover tickets. Going to Florence? Add a regional train from Pisa Centrale, roughly EUR 8.60 and about an hour to Santa Maria Novella.

EVERY WAY OUT — REAL PRICES

PisaMover to Pisa Centrale BEST FOR MOST EUR 6.50

The station is beside the terminal; the ride is about 5 minutes with one intermediate stop at the San Giusto/Aurelia car parks. Runs every day from 06:00 to midnight, extended to 01:00 from 1 June to 30 September. EUR 6.50 single, EUR 13.00 return. Tickets are valid 30 days from issue and are sold at machines at the airport, Pisa Centrale and San Giusto/Aurelia stations, and at the company ticket office in the Aurelia car park (08:30-18:00).

Taxi from the rank (municipal fixed fare) EUR 10.60

The Comune di Pisa sets predetermined fares from the airport: EUR 10.60 to Pisa Centrale and EUR 14.20 to Piazza Duomo / Piazza Manin. The rank is outside arrivals. Supplements go on top - roughly EUR 3.05 at night and about EUR 1.50 per bag in the hold. Co.Ta.Pi., the local cooperative, lists EUR 10.80 for the same Central Station run.

Train onward from Pisa Centrale from EUR 8.60

Pisa Centrale is the junction for the region: regional trains run to Florence Santa Maria Novella in about an hour for roughly EUR 8.60, and there are frequent services to Lucca, Livorno and La Spezia. The PisaMover ticket does not include any train travel - buy the rail ticket separately.

PisaMover family and group rates EUR 4.50-5.50

Groups of 10 or more pay EUR 5.00 each. The family rate covers up to five members - two parents at EUR 5.50 each and children at EUR 4.50 each. Pisa residents can buy six single shuttle tickets a month at EUR 1.20 by showing an ID card confirming residence.

Park and Fly combined ticket EUR 3.20

If you are leaving a car, EUR 3.20 covers up to 18 hours in the Goletta or Aurelia park-and-ride plus a return shuttle trip from the intermediate station. Other passengers in the same car get reduced shuttle tickets by entering the parking ticket at the machines at the station entrance.

THE TRAPS — WALK PAST THESE

The PisaMover is not a train and no rail ticket covers it

It is a separate EUR 6.50 for 1,760 metres, with no child fare, no railcard reduction and no regional discount. The only reductions are the family rate and groups of 10 or more. A child travelling half-price on the train pays the shuttle in full. Do this: budget EUR 6.50 each on top of any rail ticket, and check the family rate before buying singles

There is no fixed taxi fare from Pisa to Florence

Florence is outside the Pisa comune, so the meter runs on the extra-urban rate of about EUR 2.30 per kilometre on top of the opening charge. Over the roughly 80 km that puts the meter alone past EUR 180 before any extras. Do this: take the PisaMover and a train instead - about EUR 15 all in against a taxi meter of EUR 180 or more

Before 06:00 there is no PisaMover at all

The shuttle's first run is 06:00, and the company ticket office only opens at 08:30. Pisa Centrale's first departures leave around 04:15, so an early flight or an early train leaves you with a taxi as the only way to the terminal. Do this: check your arrival or departure against the 06:00 first shuttle, and book a taxi in advance if you are outside it

Two people on the PisaMover pay more than a taxi

Two singles are EUR 13.00 against a fixed taxi fare of EUR 10.60 to the same station, and the return pair is EUR 26.00 against roughly EUR 21.20 for two taxi runs. The shuttle only wins on cost when you are travelling alone. Do this: take the fixed-fare taxi from the rank if there are two or more of you going to the station or the centre

KNOW BEFORE YOU WALK

- The PisaMover runs every day from 06:00 to midnight, extended to 01:00 from 1 June to 30 September.
- Tickets are valid 30 days from the date of issue, so buy the return and use the second half on the way back.
- Ticket machines sit at the airport station (4), Pisa Centrale (4) and San Giusto/Aurelia (4), and each machine issues up to 10 tickets in one go.
- Pisa's urban bus ticket is EUR 2.00 for 70 minutes with bus transfers included - the same fare as Florence, after Autolinee Toscane's 1 August 2026 increase.
- Groups of 10 or more pay EUR 5.00 each on the shuttle, and the family rate is EUR 5.50 per parent and EUR 4.50 per child for up to five people.
- The intermediate San Giusto/Aurelia stop serves both park-and-ride car parks, so you can board there instead of at the airport.

Prices verified October 2026 against the PisaMover service charter (rev. 13, 30 March 2026) and the operator's published fare page, the Comune di Pisa predetermined taxi fares (in force since 1 February 2023) and Autolinee Toscane's 2026 tariff table. PisaMover EUR 6.50 occasional ride, EUR 13.00 return, groups of 10+ EUR 5.00, family EUR 5.50 per parent and EUR 4.50 per child, park-and-fly EUR 3.20, resident rate EUR 1.20. Taxi EUR 10.60 to Pisa Centrale and EUR 14.20 to Piazza Duomo/Manin; Co.Ta.Pi. lists EUR 10.80 for the station run. The Florence rail fare of about EUR 8.60 is the published Trenitalia regional fare to Santa Maria Novella and is given as an indication - check it on trenitalia.com for your date. Pisa's urban bus single is EUR 2.00 for 70 minutes under the Autolinee Toscane tariffs in force from 1 August 2026, which replaced the old EUR 1.70 fare still quoted by most guides.
