

AIRPORT EXIT

Seville Airport (SVQ)

Verified Oct 2026 · airportexit.guide — offline one-pager

THE ANSWER

Take the TUSSAM EA bus (Especial Aeropuerto) from outside arrivals - EUR 6.00 single, EUR 8.00 return, about 35 minutes to Plaza de Armas, with stops at Santa Justa, San Bernardo and Prado de San Sebastin.

There is no rail link to Seville airport at all, and the taxi runs on a closed fare rather than a meter: EUR 26 on a weekday daytime, EUR 29 at every other hour and all weekend. Two people travelling together are still cheaper on the bus.

Two or more with bags? The taxi is a flat EUR 26 (Monday-Friday 07:00-21:00) or EUR 29, charged per vehicle rather than per person, and takes 15-20 minutes - for a family of four it beats four bus tickets. Riding a lot this month? The EUR 24.60 monthly airport card pays for itself at four return journeys.

EVERY WAY OUT — REAL PRICES

TUSSAM EA airport bus BEST FOR MOST EUR 6.00 single / EUR 8.00 return

Runs from 04:30 to about 01:00 daily, roughly every 12-20 minutes, about 35 minutes to Plaza de Armas. Stops include Santa Justa (the AVE station), San Bernardo, Prado de San Sebastin and Plaza de Armas. Tickets from the booth in arrivals, on board, or at authorised sales points; contactless bank cards are accepted on TUSSAM buses.

Taxi (flat airport fare) EUR 26 / EUR 29

15-20 minutes. A closed fare, not a meter: EUR 26 under Fare 4, which covers Monday to Friday 07:00-21:00, and EUR 29 under Fare 5, which covers every other weekday hour plus the whole of Saturday, Sunday and public holidays, 24 and 31 December, Holy Week 07:00-21:00 and the April Fair 07:00-20:00. Charged per vehicle, not per person, and Aena states no luggage, night or weekend supplements apply on airport-city runs.

TUSSAM monthly airport card EUR 24.60

Thirty days of unlimited TUSSAM bus and tram travel including the airport line, reduced from EUR 41.00. Applied for at the customer service points (Prado de San Sebastin, Ponce de Len, Av. Andaluca 11 and the municipal district offices) and recharged there or on the TUSSAM website. Aimed at people commuting to the terminal, not at visitors.

Uber / Bolt / Cabify app quote

15-25 minutes, priced by the app at booking. Coverage in Seville is good and off-peak quotes often undercut the flat taxi fare, but surge at Feria, Holy Week and big match nights can push them well above the regulated EUR 26/EUR 29. Pick-up is from the signed VTC area rather than the taxi rank.

Pre-booked transfer from EUR 30

15-20 minutes door-to-door with a driver waiting in arrivals. The only option with a guaranteed meeting point and a known price before you fly, which is what you are paying the premium for over the EUR 26 taxi.

THE TRAPS — WALK PAST THESE

The EUR 4 bus fare every guide still prints

The EA single is EUR 6.00, not EUR 4. TUSSAM added a EUR 1 airport supplement in 2025 and kept it for 2026, and the company confirmed it is holding all urban fares this year - so EUR 6.00 single and EUR 8.00 return is the current number, while a lot of transfer guides are still quoting the old price. Do this: budget EUR 6 each way, or buy the EUR 8 return if you are flying home from Seville

The taxi fare depends on the day, not the distance

The flat airport fare is EUR 26 only Monday to Friday between 07:00 and 21:00. Every other hour, the entire weekend and every public holiday it is EUR 29 - and Holy Week, the April Fair and 24 and 31 December have their own windows. A Saturday midday arrival pays the higher rate, not the weekday one. Do this: expect EUR 29 if you land at the weekend, at night, or during Holy Week or the Feria

The EUR 6 EA ticket buys one ride and no transfer

TUSSAM's own fare notice carries an asterisk against the EA single: the transfer from this line to any other line of the network is not valid. The airport fare is also outside the tourist cards. Arrive at Plaza de Armas or Prado expecting to change onto a city bus and you buy a second ticket. Do this: if you are changing buses, buy a multi-trip card as well, or walk from whichever EA stop is nearest your hotel

There is no train, whatever your app says

San Pablo airport has no railway station and no metro. The Santa Justa AVE station is 8 km away in the city and the EA bus stops there - but the airport itself is served only by the bus and by taxis. Guides that list a 'train to the airport' are confusing Seville with Mlaga or Barcelona. Do this: plan on the EA bus or a taxi; do not buy a rail ticket expecting to arrive at the terminal

The driver who starts the meter

Seville's airport fare is closed, not metered. If a driver runs the meter on an airport-to-city trip the total will drift above the regulated EUR 26 or EUR 29, and the fare table printed in the car is the thing to point at. Do this: confirm the flat fare before you get in, and ask for the receipt - Aena recommends it for any complaint

KNOW BEFORE YOU WALK

- The EA runs from 04:30 to about 01:00 daily and is the only public transport to the airport, so a landing after the last departure means a taxi.
- Buy the return on arrival if you are flying home from SVQ: EUR 8 against EUR 12 for two singles, and it is valid on the same day or the following day.
- The flat taxi fare is per vehicle, so three or four people with luggage usually do better in a taxi than on four EUR 6 bus tickets.
- Aena lists EUR 0.57 per piece of luggage over 10 kg in the general Seville tariff, but states that no luggage, night or weekend supplements apply on the airport-city flat fare - and the airport fare is the one that matters.
- The ordinary TUSSAM single is EUR 1.40 and a multi-trip card brings the per-journey cost under EUR 1, so buy one if you will use the city buses after the airport run.
- The EA calls at Santa Justa, which is where the AVE to Madrid and Crdoba leaves - you can go straight from the plane to a high-speed train without entering the centre.

Prices verified October 2026 against TUSSAM's published airport service page, Aena's Sevilla airport bus and taxi pages, and the airport's own how-to-get-there fare notice. EA single EUR 6.00 and return EUR 8.00 (valid same day or next), monthly airport card EUR 24.60 reduced from EUR 41.00, ordinary TUSSAM single EUR 1.40 - taxi closed airport fare EUR 26.00 on Fare 4 (Monday-Friday 07:00-21:00) and EUR 29.00 on Fare 5 (all other weekday hours, all Saturday, Sunday and public holidays, 24 and 31 December, Holy Week 07:00-21:00, Feria de Abril 07:00-20:00); EUR 0.57 per piece of luggage over 10 kg is listed but Aena states no luggage, night or weekend supplements apply on the airport-city fare. Ride-hailing and pre-booked transfers are quoted live by the app or operator, not published, so those are ranges rather than fares. No ads. No affiliate rankings. Wrong price? Report it on the guide page — reviewed and merged before it appears.