THE ANSWER

Take the SKM train from Warszawa Lotnisko Chopina, the underground station inside the terminal - 4.40 zł for a 75-minute ZTM ticket that also covers every bus, tram and metro you change onto. About 20 minutes to the central stations (Warszawa Śródmieście and Warszawa Centralna), 16 to Warszawa Zachodnia.

Warsaw is one of the few big European airports with no airport supplement at all: the train, the buses and the metro all run on the same ordinary city ticket, and the station is inside the terminal.

Tight budget? Bus 175 from the arrivals level costs the same 4.40 zł and passes the Centrum metro stop and both central railway stations. Landed after midnight? The N32 night bus is the only city line serving the airport overnight; otherwise it is a taxi, about 50 zł.

EVERY WAY OUT — REAL PRICES

SKM train S2 / S3 BEST FOR MOST 4.40 zł

The station entrance is on the arrivals level of Terminal A, next to the Lost & Found office in zone AB, with an underground passage to the platforms. SKM S2 runs to Sulejówkę Miłosna via Warszawa Zachodnia, Śródmieście and Wschodnia; SKM S3 to Legionowo via Warszawa Zachodnia, Centralna and Wschodnia. With the Koleje Mazowieckie RL airport line there is a train about every 15 minutes - S2 roughly every 30 minutes, S3 and RL about hourly each. About 16 minutes to Warszawa Zachodnia and 20 to the central stations. Buy the 75-minute ticket at the machines by the station entrance and validate it before boarding.

Bus 175 4.40 zł

The most useful day bus. From the Lotnisko Chopina - Przyloty 02 stop on the lower (arrivals) level it runs along Zwirki i Wigury and Aleje Jerozolimskie past the Centrum metro station and the Warszawa Centralna and Warszawa Śródmieście stations, ending at Plac Pilsudskiego by the Old Town. The airport quotes about 30 minutes to the Centrum stop. Same 75-minute ticket, validated in the machine on board.

Buses 188, 148 and 331 4.40 zł

188 runs to Praga-Południe via the Łazienkowska route and the Politechnika metro station; 148 runs to Praga-Południe via Mokotów and Ursynów and the Imielin metro station; 331 runs to the Wilanowska metro station but only on weekdays in the peak hours. All three leave from the same arrivals-level stop on the same 75-minute ticket.

Night bus N32 4.40 zł

The only ZTM line that serves the airport overnight, from the same arrivals-level stop. It runs to the Dworzec Centralny, the interchange for the whole night bus network, so from there one ticket still covers the rest of the city. Same 4.40 zł 75-minute fare.

Taxi from the airport rank about 50 zł

The airport's own figure for the trip to the city centre is about 50 zł, and licensed taxis stand at the terminal with the tariff in the window; iTaxi (737 737 737) is the airport's listed partner. Warsaw caps the meter at 10 zł to start, 5 zł per km by day (06:00-22:00) and 7.50 zł per km at night, on Sundays and on holidays, plus up to 50 zł per hour of waiting.

Uber and Bolt app price

Both apps are official airport partners with pickup points on the arrivals level: Uber uses Arrivals 1 (zone AB, nearest luggage belts 6-9) and Arrivals 2 (zone CDE, nearest belts 1-5), and the app tells you which to walk to. The airport also has Uber 'Tap to Ride' kiosks in the baggage reclaim hall and the arrivals hall. The fare is set by the app.

THE TRAPS — WALK PAST THESE

The 20-minute ticket is 1 zł cheaper and gets you nowhere

A 20-minute ticket costs 3.40 zł against 4.40 zł for the 75-minute one, and both come from the same machines. The airport's own instruction is to buy at least a 75-minute ticket, because the run to the Centrum stop takes about 30 minutes - the 20-minute ticket expires along Zwirki i Wigury, and an expired or unvalidated ticket is a fine, not a top-up. Do this: buy the 75-minute zone 1 ticket for 4.40 zł and validate it the moment you board

The bus out of the airport leaves from the arrivals level, not the departures level

ZTM buses arrive at the airport on the upper (departures) level and leave from the lower (arrivals) level - boarding on the departures level to leave the airport is not permitted. Travellers who follow the crowd upstairs watch the bus they wanted drive off from the floor below. Do this: leave arrivals and find the Lotnisko Chopina - Przyloty stop on the lower level

The railway station is in the basement and easy to walk past

Warszawa Lotnisko Chopina station sits under Terminal A, reached by an underground passage from the arrivals hall - its entrance is beside the Lost & Found office in zone AB. Nothing outside says a train is down there, so people walk to the kerb and take the 30-minute bus instead of the 20-minute train. Do this: follow the signs down to the SKM station before you leave the terminal

Anyone offering you a taxi inside arrivals is not the taxi rank

The airport advises passengers to use licensed taxis only and says the tariff must be displayed in the car window. The rank and the Uber and Bolt pickup points are outside the hall; a driver who approaches you at the baggage belt is selling a price of their own, well above the airport's 50 zł benchmark. Do this: walk to the official rank or order in the app, and never follow someone who approaches you in the hall

A pick-up in the Kiss & Fly zone costs 30 zł if it runs past 7 minutes

The Kiss & Fly area in front of the terminal gives the first 7 minutes free, charges 30 zł for a stop of 7-15 minutes and 1 zł per minute beyond that. The free window only applies if the same car has not entered the zone in the previous 30 minutes. Do this: wait at the kerb before your driver enters the zone, with the bags ready to load

KNOW BEFORE YOU WALK

- One 75-minute ticket (4.40 zł) covers the SKM train, every ZTM bus, the tram and the metro; the airport is inside zone 1, so no second-zone ticket is needed.
- The same 75-minute ticket also covers the Koleje Mazowieckie RL airport line on the section between Warszawa Pludzy and Lotnisko Chopina.
- A 24-hour zone 1 ticket is 15 zł, a 72-hour one 36 zł, a weekend ticket (19:00 Friday to 08:00 Monday) 24 zł, and a 75-minute group ticket for up to 10 people is 22 zł - the cheapest way in for a family.
- Tickets come from machines at the bus stops and at the station entrance, from machines on board SKM trains and buses, or from the mobile app; there is no conductor to pay and no airport surcharge.
- Chopin has one passenger terminal, Terminal A, with check-in islands running from A to E - there is no Terminal 1 or Terminal 2 to choose between.
- Warsaw's other airport, Modlin (WMI), is 40 km north and is not served by Warsaw public transport at all - the 4.40 zł ticket will not get you there.

Prices verified October 2026 against the Warsaw Public Transport (WTP) published fare list, the airport's own 'To and from the Warsaw Chopin Airport' page, the City of Warsaw's maximum taxi tariffs and the Koleje Mazowieckie RL airport timetable. 75-minute zone 1 ticket 4.40 zł - 20-minute zones 1+2 ticket 3.40 zł - 90-minute zones 1+2 ticket 7 zł - 24-hour zone 1 ticket 15 zł (zones 1+2 26 zł) - 72-hour zone 1 ticket 36 zł (zones 1+2 57 zł) - weekend ticket 24 zł (group 40 zł) - 75-minute group ticket up to 10 people 22 zł. The 50 zł taxi figure is the airport's own indicative number, not a fixed fare; the meter is capped by the city at 10 zł to start, 5 zł per km by day and 7.50 zł per km at night, on Sundays and on holidays. Uber and Bolt fares are set by the app and are not published by the airport, so no price is quoted.
